Introduction

In late December 1970 Hans was assigned to Shaw Air Force Base in Sumter South Carolina USA. Hans arrived from his one year tour in Thailand in 1970. His family had stayed in England during 1970, and moved to South Carolina to become a combined family again.

This compendium is a collections of photos from their time in South Carolina. Only the photos from South Carolina are included. While in South Carolina, the family also traveled within United States, and these photos are in another compendium. They also traveled to Germany, and those photos are also in another compendium.

Hans had arrived first in Shaw AFB, and had arranged a trailer for the family to live in. In this trailer, the family celebrated a belated Christmas. Soon on-base house became available and the family moved into 5A Rhodes Ave, one side of a duplex. They stayed in this home until July 1972. Hans was reassigned to Maxwell Montgomery Alabama and the family had to move again.

While in South Carolina, the family would go on day trips to the local rivers, and to Sumter for events. In May 1971, the family went to Sumter for the IRIS Festival and Parade. They would also often go to Myrtle Beach for a weekend of beach camping.

During Dec 1970, while moving from England to South Carolina, Helga and the kids visited relatives in Herford Germany. Those photos are in another Compendium. When leaving South Carolina to move to Alabama, the whole family took another trip to Germany in July 1972. They visited relatives in Wiesbaden and Herford. Those photos are also in another Compendium.

Glenda, our babysitter from England came to visit us.

We went to Blue Springs Park (St James River SC) in May 1972.

She then went to New York City to visit a common friend. They both died in a head-on collision on a New York Interstate.

Once a month, Tina had horseback riding lessons. The most convenient stables taught Plantation riding with Tennessee Walkers, which is why the horse has a double bridle.

We were friends with the Rickard family (Bill, Josie, Linda, and Lisa). Bill the father was also in the Air Force and worked in the same Photo Lab as Hans
